Martis 22 Die Februarii, 1731,

Resolved nem. con. That if any officer or servant of this house shall presume to demand or take any greater fee than what shall be contained in the said printed tables, this house will proceed against such officer or servant with the utmost severity.

Jovis 19 Die Junii 1746.

Resolved, That the serjeant at arms attending this house is intitled to, and ought to take and receive from every person who shall be brought to the bar of this house to be reprimanded by Mr. Speaker, the fees following, viz. the fee of 5 l. or 3 l. 6 s. 8 d. according to the table of fees, for taking a person into custody; the fees for one day in custody, viz. 1 l. for himself, and 6 s. 8 d. for the messenger; and the fee of 6 s. 8 d. for bringing a criminal to the bar.

Jovis 13 Die Junii 1751.

Resolved, That every bill, for the particular interest or benefit of any person or persons, whether the same be brought in upon petition or motion, or report from a committee, or brought from the lords, hath been, and ought to be, deemed a private bill, within the meaning of the table of fees.

Resolved, That every enacting clause, so brought in upon petition, motion, or report, or brought from the lords, for a particular interest or benefit, hath been, and ought to be, deemed a private enacting clause, within the meaning of the said table of fees, whether the bill, in which such clause is inserted, be publick or private.

Resolved, That every such bill, and every such enacting clause, which concerns a county or counties, or corporation or corporations, or body or bodies of people, hath been, and ought to be, deemed a double bill, within the meaning of the said table of fees.

Resolved, That every distinct provision made in any bill, for the particular interest or benefit of any person or persons, or of any county or counties, corporation or corporations, body or bodies of people, and every distinct provision made in any bill, relating to a distinct interest, estate or matter, hath been, and ought to be, deemed an enacting clause within the meaning of the said table of fees; and that a distinct fee ought to be paid for the same, as for an enacting clause; provided, that in bills containing distinct provisions for more than three bodies of people, no more than a single fee shall be paid for each body.

Resolved, That no such bill or clause, for the particular interest or benefit of any person or persons, or county or counties, or corporation or corporations, or body or bodies of people, shall be read a second time, until fees be paid for the same.

The French Monarchy has subsisted ever since the Year 418. The Kings are descended from three Races or Families, viz. the Merovingians, the Carlovingians, and the Capetians; which last Family have held the Sceptre near 800 Years. The Princes of the Blood are also of three Houses, viz. the House of Orleans, the House of Bourbon-Condé, and House of Bourbon-Conty. The King is stiled Most Christian, and Eldest Son of the Church.

There are in France 18 Archbishopricks, and 112 Bishopricks, which, it is said, contain 140000 Cures or Parishes, 16 Chiefs of Orders or Congregations, 1356 Abbeys of Men, including the 16 great Royal Abbeys; 557 Abbeys of Women; 12400 Priories; 15200 Chapels, with all their Chaplains; 14777 Convents of all the different Orders. The King has the Nomination of all the Archbishops and Bishops, and presents to 770 Abbeys of Men, and 280 of Women. The Clergy meet generally once in five Years.

The Extent of this Country, from East to West, i. e. from the extreme Point of Brittainy to the Rhine near Strasburg, is 207 common Leagues; and from Mount Canighou in the Pyrrhenese to the North Point next Dunkirk, 213 common Leagues.

THE Cardinals are divided into three Orders. There are six Cardinal Bishops, fifty Cardinal Priests, and fourteen Deacons. The six Cardinal Bishops have their Titles from six Sees situated near Rome; the first is Bishop of Ostia and Dean of the Sacred College; the second is Bishop of Porto and Sub-dean; the other four are Bishops of Sabina, Palestrina, Frascati, and Albano: These six Bishopricks may be held with others. The Cardinal Priests and the Cardinal Deacons have for Title, every one of them, one of the Churches in the City of Rome. The Number of Cardinals was fixed to 70 by Sixtus V. in 1588.

HOLLAND.

THE Seven United Provinces have been esteemed the most considerable Republick in the World, from their Foundation in 1579; when they united themselves by a solemn Treaty, which was signed at Utrecht, and a little after at Westphalia, where the King of Spain himself recognized their Sovereignty. Each Province has its own Laws; but all

All Affairs that regard the Republick are determined by the States-General at the Hague.

Chief City, Amsterdam.

V E N I C E.

THE Foundation of this Republick is said to have been in 421; and the Election of their first Doge in 693. They have four principal Councils: I. The Nobility. II. The 120 Pregadi chosen out of them, of which the Senate is composed. III. The Doge and his 25 Assessors. IV. The Council of Ten.

The City of Venice is called The Virgin City, on Account of its never having been subject to any other Power.

Venice was made a Free Port 11 May 1736.

The present Doge is Fr. Loredano.

G E N O A.

THIS Republick has subsisted 1800 Years. It is governed by a Doge, who gives all Orders under the Senate, but without any Share in their Resolutions. They chuse a new Doge every 3d of January.

THIS Republick began in 1315: It consists of 13 Cantons: Seven Catholick, four Evangelick, and two Mixed.

G E N E V A.

A Sovereign Republick since 1511.

L U C C A,

HAS been a Republick ever since 300. It is governed by three Counsellors, the Chief of which is called Gunfullonier, whom they change every three Months.

St. M A R I N O,

IS governed by two Captains, whom they chuse twice a Year.

R A G U S A.

R A G U S A.

THE Chief Magistrate is called the Reſtor, whom they chuſe monthly.

H A M B U R G.

THE Government of this City, celebrated for its Commerce, is in four Chiefs or Sovereign Burgomasters with four Syndics or Wardens, three Secretaries, and one Prothonotary, or Principal Secretary. When any Thing extraordinary is to be moved in regard to the Publick Revenue, they demand a Deputation of the Chief Citizens to assist them, from twelve sometimes to ninety-six, that there may be no Room for Reproach.

A LIST of the Kings from William the Conqueror, exhibiting the Beginning and Length of every Reign, and consequently the corresponding Year of our Lord and of any King; very useful to Gentlemen who read the Statute Law: To which is added, some of the most remarkable Events in each Reign.

WILLIAM I. born 1027,

Began his Reign 14 Oct. 1066, and reigned 20 Years, 10 Months, and 26 Days.

Memorable Events.

William Duke of Normandy, (commonly called William the Conqueror) pretending a Right to the Crown of England, landed in Suffex on Sept. 8, 1066; and on October 14 following, was fought that memorable Battle of Hastings, in which was killed King Harold and his two Brothers, with most of the English Nobility, and 97974 Private Soldiers. He levied a Tax of 6s. on every 100 Acres in the Kingdom: He ordain'd the Court of Chancery and Exchequer, and was crown'd every Year.

WILLIAM II. born 1057,

Began his Reign 9 Sept, 1087, and reigned 12 Years, 10 Months, and 23 Days.

About this Time the Holy War was undertaken by the Christian Princes, which continued 300 Year. This King built Westminster-hall, rebuilt London-Bridge. The Sea drowned 400 Acres in Kent, now called Godwin Sands. He was shot with an Arrow by Sir Walter Tyrrold, leveling at a Deer.

HENRY I. born 1058,

Began his Reign 1 Aug. 1100, and reigned 35 Years, 4 Months, and 1 Day.

The young Son of the Conqueror, Robert Duke of Normandy, next Heir to the Crown of England, being at that Time engaged in the Holy War, his Brother Henry took that Advantage, and usurp'd the Crown; but Robert returning from the Wars, asserted his Right, was taken Prisoner, his Eyes put out, and confin'd in Cardiffe Castle in Wales 28 Years, and died there. King Henry held the first Great Council, where was considered the Prohibiting Priests their Wives and Concubines.

cubines, and the Bishops granted that the King should have the whole Management of it, by which he rais'd vast Sums for indulging the Clergy to keep Women. In this Reign were collected the Laws call'd Magna Charta. Prince William, the King's eldest Son, his Bride, two other of the King's Children, and 180 Attendants, were shipwreck'd and lost returning from Normandy.

STEPHEN, born 1105,

Began his Reign 2 Dec. 1135, and reigned 18 Years,
10 Months, and 23 Days,
